History of PAL Stratford

Many esteemed actors, singers, writers, business people and behind-the-scenes professionals have contributed their life's work to the theatrical, television and cinematic arts in Canada.

In October 1999, Tom Patterson, Stratford Festival Founder, and Herbert Whittaker, Critic Emeritus for the Globe and Mail, spearheaded the inception of Performing Arts Lodge (PAL) Stratford, using the PAL Toronto Residence as a model.

They recognized that the Stratford Festival had a substantial legacy; an aging theatre and arts community whose members wished to continue living in and around Stratford.

True to Tom's vision, PAL Stratford's long-term goal is to provide affordable, congenial housing for these valued members of the Stratford community.

Our charitable status enables major fundraising activities that will help us to achieve our goal in the foreseeable future.

PAL's unique voluntary service, Supporting Cast, is available to assist ailing or aging performing arts professionals.

PAL Stratford is a voluntary Canadian charitable organization governed by an elected Board of Directors.

Become a member of PAL Stratford!

For only $20/year, you can become a part of history, as we strive to establish a Performing Arts Lodge right here in Stratford.

Membership is not restricted to the professional and performing arts community. Many members join to offer their support to the people who have dedicated their lives to our entertainment.

Membership provides free access to PAL Stratford community events. For those still active in the community, we help to promote our members' arts-related workshops, recitals, concerts or exhibits.

We advertise members' events in our newsletter, online, at events, and via email... for FREE!

PAL Canada® is the national umbrella organization that links the PAL Chapters in Halifax, Toronto, Stratford, Winnipeg, Calgary, Edmonton and Vancouver.

Your PAL Stratford membership automatically enrolls you as a member of PAL Canada. You will receive their national quarterly newsletter, Palingenesis, and news of their events. Visit the PAL Canada web site for details.
